New Zealand benefits from the skills, knowledge, experience, and connections that former refugees and migrants bring with them. Former refugees and migrants feel a sense of belonging and settle effectively in New Zealand.

Stakeholders choose ELP because we contribute to their goals by being a well-respected, forward thinking and proactive organisation.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP demonstrates excellence and innovation in English language provision.

ELP leads and advocates for the development of former refugee and migrant education and settlement.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP activities are supported by diverse income sources.

ELP provides input and makes submissions.

ELP staff participate in networks, partnerships and sectors.

ELP has innovative programmes.

ELP has diverse income sources.

ELP meets compliance requirements.

ELP data, evaluation and research.

Programme development.

ELP activities are supported by diverse income sources.

Programme development.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP leads and advocates for the development of former refugee and migrant education and settlement.

ELP fosters a culture of learning that effectively uses information to improve organisational practices.

ELP demonstrates excellence and innovation in English language provision.

New Zealand benefits from the skills, knowledge, experience, and connections that former refugees and migrants bring with them. Former refugees and migrants feel a sense of belonging and settle effectively in New Zealand.

Stakeholders choose ELP because we contribute to their goals by being a well-respected, forward thinking and proactive organisation.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP demonstrates excellence and innovation in English language provision.

ELP leads and advocates for the development of former refugee and migrant education and settlement.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP activities are supported by diverse income sources.

ELP provides input and makes submissions.

ELP staff participate in networks, partnerships and sectors.

ELP has innovative programmes.

ELP has diverse income sources.

ELP meets compliance requirements.

ELP data, evaluation and research.

Programme development.

ELP activities are supported by diverse income sources.

Programme development.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP leads and advocates for the development of former refugee and migrant education and settlement.

ELP fosters a culture of learning that effectively uses information to improve organisational practices.

ELP demonstrates excellence and innovation in English language provision.

New Zealand benefits from the skills, knowledge, experience, and connections that former refugees and migrants bring with them. Former refugees and migrants feel a sense of belonging and settle effectively in New Zealand.

Stakeholders choose ELP because we contribute to their goals by being a well-respected, forward thinking and proactive organisation.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP demonstrates excellence and innovation in English language provision.

ELP leads and advocates for the development of former refugee and migrant education and settlement.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP activities are supported by diverse income sources.

ELP provides input and makes submissions.

ELP staff participate in networks, partnerships and sectors.

ELP has innovative programmes.

ELP has diverse income sources.

ELP meets compliance requirements.

ELP data, evaluation and research.

Programme development.

ELP activities are supported by diverse income sources.

Programme development.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP leads and advocates for the development of former refugee and migrant education and settlement.

ELP fosters a culture of learning that effectively uses information to improve organisational practices.

ELP demonstrates excellence and innovation in English language provision.

New Zealand benefits from the skills, knowledge, experience, and connections that former refugees and migrants bring with them. Former refugees and migrants feel a sense of belonging and settle effectively in New Zealand.

Stakeholders choose ELP because we contribute to their goals by being a well-respected, forward thinking and proactive organisation.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP demonstrates excellence and innovation in English language provision.

ELP leads and advocates for the development of former refugee and migrant education and settlement.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP activities are supported by diverse income sources.

ELP provides input and makes submissions.

ELP staff participate in networks, partnerships and sectors.

ELP has innovative programmes.

ELP has diverse income sources.

ELP meets compliance requirements.

ELP data, evaluation and research.

Programme development.

ELP activities are supported by diverse income sources.

Programme development.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP leads and advocates for the development of former refugee and migrant education and settlement.

ELP fosters a culture of learning that effectively uses information to improve organisational practices.

ELP demonstrates excellence and innovation in English language provision.

New Zealand benefits from the skills, knowledge, experience, and connections that former refugees and migrants bring with them. Former refugees and migrants feel a sense of belonging and settle effectively in New Zealand.

Stakeholders choose ELP because we contribute to their goals by being a well-respected, forward thinking and proactive organisation.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP demonstrates excellence and innovation in English language provision.

ELP leads and advocates for the development of former refugee and migrant education and settlement.

ELP’s networks and partnerships create connections and pathways for learners to participate in further study, employment and daily life.

ELP activities are supported by diverse income sources.

ELP provides input and makes submissions.

ELP staff participate in networks, partnerships and sectors.

ELP has innovative programmes.

ELP has diverse income sources.

ELP meets compliance requirements.

ELP data, evaluation and research.