| 1. Learners have the English language skills needed for their effective settlement. | 80% of learners make English language gains. Learner outcomes clearly align with our Outcomes Model. | We will innovate and diversify by
1.1 Researching current and potential learner language and settlement needs and modifying programmes and delivery accordingly.
1.2 Assessing the gaps in delivery based on the funding structure and develop a business case for more innovative, learner-focused funding structures.
1.3 Exploring and improving online learning opportunities.
1.4 Improving the marketing of learning opportunities available at ELP.
We will partner by
1.5 Developing clear pathways for employment, social support and further education.
1.6 Making connections with local iwi to help learners develop understanding and connections with local tangata whenua.
We build capability and capacity by
1.7 Ensuring staff and volunteers have the knowledge, skills and resources to deliver effectively.
1.8 Celebrating language and settlement success stories. |
| 2. Former refugees and migrants successfully integrate into New Zealand workplaces. | “Work” English and cultural competence programmes delivered to industries with a high migrant workforce. Employers we work with report improved capability for employees attending an ELNZ programme. Increased revenue from partnerships with business. | We will innovate and diversify by
2.1 Developing innovative employer cultural competence programmes.
2.2 Developing “work” English modules that support employees working in specific sectors.
We will partner by
2.3 Developing partnerships with the business community with the aim of helping them be successful employers of migrants and generating diversified income for ELNZ.
We build capability and capacity by
2.4 Ensuring staff have the knowledge, skills and resources to deliver effective workplace programmes.
2.5 Celebrating employment success stories. |
